REASON: Singing Competition Registration

Candidates must submit one or, preferably, two pieces. The first video must contain only a piece taken from the operatic repertoire. The second video may contain another piece taken from the operatic repertoire or from the contemporary, popular, modern, musical, Neapolitan song, tango etc. repertoire.

The commission will select 9 finalist candidates who will perform in attendance on 24 July 2021 at the Parco della Musica - Città Insieme - Magliano di Carmiano (LE) on a stage of about 300m<sup>2</sup>, accompanied by the piano and / or instrumental ensemble made available by the organization.

The jury present on the stage will be formed as follows:

Enrico Tricarico (president of the jury)

Martino De Cesare (musician)

Dionigi D'Ostuni (tenor)

Mila Soldatic (soprano)

Claudia Oddo (soprano)

Carlo Provenzano (baritone)

At the end of the performances of the 9 finalists, the jury will award the following scholarships:

- I ° CLASSIFIED a scholarship of € 2,000.00
- II ° CLASSIFIED a scholarship of € 1,000.00
- III ° CLASSIFIED a scholarship of € 500.00

The "Award for Best Interpretation" and the "Audience Award" will also be awarded with the relative certificates.

The 1st classified, winner of the Competition, will perform the following evening on 25 July 2021, performing the award-winning piece accompanied by the great Terra del Sole Orchestra or the piano.

A certificate of merit or participation will be sent to all non-finalist participants of the Competition.

Both in the preliminary phase and in the final phase of the Competition, the jury expresses scores in hundredths. In the preliminary phase, each juror expresses his score and the candidates with the highest average will enter the final phase.
